buy warsaa products, support our heritage

The Warsaa shop, located at the historic Shaniwar Wada is a project initiated by the Pune chapter of INTACH.

INTACH (Indian National Trust for Art and Cultural heritage) is a national NGO established in 1984. The Pune chapter was established in 1986.

Warsaa's endeavor is to promote and create awareness about Pune, its craft, environ and its heritage.

Warsaa is presently working with Maharashtrian craftsmen to develop new designs using their age-old techniques for contemporary taste.

The proceeds of the sale are invested back for further revitalization of the craft and heritage.

Products include: Fabric (Khann, Irkal) based products like bags, quilts, folders, boxes, home accessories.

Metalware like copper water containers and utensils, miniatures, brass antiques.

Terracotta like figurines and miniature pots.

Jewelry- traditional maharashtrian

Publications about Pune's landmarks, environment and culture.
